President's Letter

Hi, All,

Well, spring finally made it! Or is it summer already? This Memorial Day Weekend was beautiful and I hope the good weather continues.

IQI's final meeting of 2017/18 is June 7th, at Gloria Dei, for our annual spring pot luck. Please check this newsletter for your assigned dish (see below). Don't forget to bring your challenge quilt and be sure to check the status of the road work on Dundee, if that is your usual route.

All of the board and committee chair positions have been filled, yay, Martha, so the membership will vote on the candidates at the June meeting. The slate is also in this newsletter.

It has been a pleasure and an honor to serve as your president, and I hope to see many of you in June.

Kristin Woods

Bring a guest to meet us all at the Pot Luck!

Doors open at 6:00 and the meal begins at 6:30 pm. We will have the election of the 2018-19 officers and see the new programs' workshops. The Challenge Quilts will be voted on—bring it with you! And our favorite: Show and Tell.

Members are great cooks! Here is what to bring:

A-M: bring a main dish

N-Z: bring salads and DESSERTS!

Anyone willing to help set up please come at 5:00 to meet Martha Ross-Mockaitis. Please call or email her with any questions.

Have you signed up for membership in IQI? (Price goes up July 1st)

Have you signed up for the Madison (Quilt Expo) bus trip on September 8th?

Have you signed up for Pam Buda's workshop(s) Aug. 3 and 4?

Bring your checkbook, signup forms, challenge quilt and a yummy dish to the June potluck on June 7th!!

IQI 2018-19 LECTURES & WORKSHOPS

Please note: Dates with an asterisk (*) indicate lecture will be held at Gloria Dei instead of Beth Hillel. Also note: some kit fees can only be paid with cash or check, no credit or debit cards. See workshop info.

Aug 2 Pam Buda "Secrets of Professional Quilters Revealed". Pam's love for early American history inspired her to create the Prairie Women's Sewing Circle club, which features anecdotal stories of American life in the 1800s and small, affordable traditional-style quilts that educate quilters about "make-and-do." She started her company, Heartspun Quilts, in 2001, featuring traditional blocks and patterns for quilts large and small. She has been featured in various quilting magazines and joined the Marcus Brothers Fabrics family as a licensed fabric designer in 2010. Pam is currently working on new quilt patterns and fabric lines, and writing her first book for Martindale Publishing company.

In her lecture, you will discover alternative piecing methods for making quilt units. She will share secrets gathered over years of trial and error, taking classes and learning from fellow designers and national teachers. "Make it larger, trim it down" demonstrates step-by-step techniques for making units (such as half-square triangles, quarter-square triangles, and flying geese) larger than they need to be so they can be trimmed down to be squared and the correct size. Pam will offer tips on pressing four patches and pin-wheels to lay perfectly flat, how to correctly sew connector corners, how to get accurate quarter-inch seams, alternate sewing methods for corner-square triangle units, and much more.

Aug 3 Plantation Stars

Join Pam in her popular Plantation Stars workshop. Stars abound large and small in a dance around the quilt, with the stars constructed in the same way. The block arrangement creates a wonderful secondary pattern forming a circular pattern around the large stars. The open space calls out for wonderful quilting to enhance the design even further. Choose whatever two colors are your favorite to work with. (Quilt size: 72" x 81") Pam also shares tips on making flying geese and creating pieced borders that fit.

Aug 4 Practice What I Preach

This is a hands-on lesson of the techniques covered in Pam's Thursday evening lecture, "Secrets of Professional Quilters Revealed."

You'll use skills learned in this workshop each and every time you quilt. It's an opportunity to try many new techniques, including "Make it larger, trim it down" for half- and quarter-square triangles, flying geese, and square-in-a-square units. She'll also cover alternate piecing techniques for the ever-popular corner-square triangle units. Students will practice what Pam demonstrates, using her tools and notions to see how they like the technique. She'll go over a variety of techniques for pressing and improving quarter-inch seam accuracy. This is an opportunity for one-on-one assistance!

Subsequent 2018-19 lectures and workshops will be presented at the June pot luck and will be featured in the next issue of the OakLeaf.

2018 Raffle Quilt Update!

To date, "World on Fire", raffle quilt ticket sales stand at $897!!! This includes $402 netted at our 2 day fund-raising event at the International Quilt Festival. I'd like to extend our appreciation and thanks to all IQI members who volunteered to sell tickets or white glove at the show. Your generous gift of time made this event possible!

"World on Fire" has traveled to and received rave reviews at Needles and Threads, North Suburban Needle Arts Guild, and Northwest Suburban Quilters Guild, earning IQI another $173. In June the quilt will be shown at Prairie Star Quilters and Faithful Circle Guild. Any IQI member Interested in showing our Quilt and selling tickets at a guild they may be affiliated with can contact me and I'd be happy to make the arrangements. It's a fun and easy way to contribute to IQI!

We will be taking the summer off.

2019 Raffle Quilt News

Fine Art of Fiber 2018- Our next show at the Chicago Botanic Garden will be Nov 1- Nov 4, 2018. The forms are now available on the website at www.fineartoffiber.org.

It's that time of the year again, when a new IQI raffle quilt will get underway. This one is going to be a New York Beauty in a contemporary style with a variety of blocks, an interesting layout and a scrappy bright colorway. The winner will be chosen at the Nov 2019 Fine Art of Fiber.

We're accepting donations of fabric in bright, clear colors- not muted or gray tones, please. Tone on tone, batiks and solids will all work. Please search your stash for fat quarters, quarter or half yards that you'd like to contribute. Leftovers will be donated to our service committee.

You can bring fabric to the June potluck, or email Roberta at textileheaven@gmail.com for other arrangements. We're going to start making kits to have available at the August meeting, so we'd love to have the fabrics by early July.

Thanks so much! We're so excited to be working on this quilt!!

Roberta Levin, Chris Deering and Sue Sweeney.

MEMBERSHIP UPDATE

The 2018-2019 membership form is now available online. You may pay with a credit card online at the IQI website using Paypal. We will also have printed copies of the form at the membership table during the June meeting.

Remember: the discounted Early Bird price of $55 is available only through June 30! Membership dues are $60 as of July 1, 2018.

As members sign up or renew, we will give you a payment receipt so that you can take books out of the library and sign up for workshops.

Our final program for the 2017-2018 year was our highest attendance at workshops! Susan Cleveland's Saturday workshop lived up to her billing that it was her most popular. It was IQI's most popular workshop as well, with 16 members and 1 guest. We learned a lot and laughed a lot. That is the beauty of a workshop...it doesn't matter how much you know, you will always learn something.

One of our members realized when she got home that she was missing her machine cord. It is a black Bernina standard cord. No, it is not in the cabinet with the other extension cords. We have looked, Gloria Dei has looked. Could you please look in your travel bag to see if perhaps you have another cord? If so, let me know.

Thanks.
Sue Sweeney
